How to use this book

This book contains all 141 words taught across the ten graded readers, in the order they are introduced.

Four words per page. Each card shows an illustration, the pinyin, the Chinese characters, and the English meaning.

Point and say. Cover the pinyin and see whether the child can read the characters. Cover the characters and see whether they can say the word from the picture.

Read in order. Words are grouped by book. A child who has finished Book 3 knows every word in the first three groups — and nothing beyond them.

Then read the stories. Every one of these words appears in a story your child can actually finish. Recognition without a story fades in weeks.
